A FEW ACTIVE, ENERGETIC BUSINESS MEN [illegible]

General Hurlbut and the Wealthy Colored Creoles.

From the New Orleans Delta, March [illegible]

A mass meeting of the colored French Creoles was held in this city on the 17th inst. When General Order No. 23 appeared, and these men, [illegible] of whom were themselves slaveholders, saw that they were to pay a capitation tax of one dollar per year in support of the helpless and infirm colored people of the Department, the Tribune called for meetings to protest against it. The meeting was mainly composed of colored men who are known as the aristocratic branch of that population of this city.

General Hurlbut's reply to the Committee is [illegible] the Creoles so well deserved. He tells them that instead of calling meetings to condemn those who do work for the freedmen, and to obstruct the vigorous work of the Government in helping them, they should put their shoulders to the wheel and help. There is an orphan asylum [illegible] in this city by the contributions of the freedmen.

The General reminds them that there is work of this kind to do and that instead of holding mass meetings and passing high sounding resolutions they should turn their attention in this direction. His letter is an excellent statement of the case, and the effect of it can only tend to good.

The colored people of this Department are in advance of any in the country, and the freedmen have greater facilities for improvement than anywhere else in the South. The work done for them during the past six months has been of an extraordinary character, and the Commanding General with his officers have had no ordinary task in this line of duty.

Strange, indeed, that the rich of this race, instead of giving their assistance, keep their arms folded while philanthropic white men are left to protect and elevate the unfortunate. It is well known that General Hurlbut's arrangements were [illegible] practical necessities of the freedmen.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE GULF,
New Orleans, March 22, 1865.

Gentlemen: Your communication of the 21st has been considered by me.

It consists of preambles that do not state facts, and resolutions that are based upon false views. I hope you have been led into these misstatements by error rather than wilfully, although I can scarcely believe you could have been so singularly misinformed.

If instead of assembling in mass meetings and wasting your time in high-sounding resolutions, you would devote yourselves to assisting in the physical and moral improvement of the freedmen, you would do some particular good. As it is, you do not in any respect represent the "Emancipated Freedmen" of Louisiana, nor are you doing their cause any good. The mass meeting which you claim to represent, was not composed of "freedmen," but of the free colored people of New Orleans, free by the old laws of the State, and some at least of them, in the old system, themselves slaveholders.

Between them and the slaves there was always, and is, now, bitterness of feeling. You are striving for social equality, they for personal freedom. The first is not a thing that can be reached by laws and orders, but can only come from the social tastes, prejudices or inclinations of the people where you live. The second is the creature of law, and can be cured by the sanction of law.

The freedman is paid for his labor.

The slave is not.

The freedman's wife and family are his. The slave's are not.

Free education is given to the freedman and his children; to the slave it is forbidden.

The freedman can bring suits, and be a witness, you know to be true, and yet you falsify and deny these great facts.

You know further, perfectly well, that without some supervision on the part of the United States, these freedmen would be cheated of their labor, induced into contracts that would ruin them, and even if fair contracts were made would be uncertain as to their fulfillment.

You know this because you have seen it, because you have reported, because you have asked for the assistance of military officers to remedy it. You also know that, as a rule, these papers have been enforced by the military authority vigorously and that many a hardworking man now has his money that otherwise would have been robbed of his due.

These results can only be obtained by contract and supervision of the contracts by Government officers. There must be some tribunal to ascertain and secure these rights. Freedmen may make contracts as they please, but the contract must be approved and registered, and will be so done, unless manifestly unfair to the laborer.

This is provided for in General Orders No. 23. If they do not make such contract they can adopt that made by the terms of the order.

They cannot be allowed to lie around doing nothing, because then they become paupers and thieves, and fall upon the Government for sustenance.

The freedmen and the planters are charged a capitation tax, $2 to the planters, $1 to the hand, to aid in supporting the disabled and helpless. I have never heard of an industrious working man who objected to it.

Are you willing, with your knowledge of society here, to have the military withdraw all control, and leave all these questions of labor and freedmen and of rights to such civil authority as exists in this State?

You well know that you are not, for I receive constant complaints from you in relation to oppression and neglect of your rights.

You cannot do away with the effects of two centuries of wrong upon white and black in a day or a year; you must take time and slow process of education to root out such prejudices and habits of thought.

It is more than probable that an entire generation must grow up under new auspices before all this ill effect can be done away.

You must wait and work, not call meetings and pass resolutions, but work faithfully and slowly to educate the public mind both of whites and blacks for the future.

It is true that the system prevailed in orders of General Banks and continued by me is temporary, to be succeeded in its turn by other steps of progress.

Whenever the time comes in which the freedman can safely appeal to society and the civil Courts for his rights, then the military supervision will cease. I do not believe that the time has yet come.

No one will rejoice more than I when it shall come. Until then, under some form or other, the paramount rights of living and of education will be secured to them under the best plan that experience shall devise and under such control as the officers of the United States may determine.

I differ entirely from you as to Conway, and consider his services valuable, and, therefore, retain him. I consider your proposal of a board or Tribunal of Arbitration impracticable, and decline to establish it. I shall, however, forward your communication and this reply to the Secretary of War, to be laid before the proper authorities.

Of course I shall be glad to have your assistance as far as it may go in advancing the condition of the laborer, but inasmuch as you are not responsible for your acts [illegible] I shall not change a system adopted without facts [illegible]. Very respectfully,

S. A. HURLBUT, M. G. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 1[illegible]

Mr Harding and Troops in Oregon

It will be remembered that some time ago ex Senator Harding published a letter over his own signature in which he said that the late calls for troops in Oregon "were made by General McDowell on representations from [illegible] that a large force was much needed in this State or District." To show how erroneous, not to use a stronger term, this assertion was, we publish the following letter from Gen McDowell to Gov. Gibbs, whereby it will be seen that the General issued the call solely on his own judgment.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT PACIFIC, }
San Francisco, April 26, 186[illegible] }

His Excellency, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of Oregon, Portland, Oregon. My Dear Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter asking if at any time you tried to influence me in making a call for troops to be raised in Oregon, and whether or not such call was made by representations that a large force was needed in the State or District of Oregon?

In reply I have to say that, at my instance and request, you joined me, as did the Governor of California for his State, in asking the Secretary of War to grant authority to raise certain forces in Oregon.

Under the authority granted, I, on my own judgment, and without previous solicitations or influence whatever from you, called on you for the troops that have been raised and are now in service. I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your most ob't serv't,
(Signed) IRWIN McDOWELL
Major General Commanding Department

A moment's reflection will convince any one of the error of Mr Harding's vehement asseveration that troops were not needed. Despite all the efforts of the military officers in this District the force under their direction was too small to prevent the predatory attacks which were made by the Indians last summer east of the mountains. On the Canyon City road many persons were killed and a thousand head of stock driven off by these marauders. If murder and violence could not be prevented or punished at that time, while yet the Oregon cavalry remained in the service, how is it expected that quiet could be preserved when the term for which these had enlisted should expire and when all protection should be withdrawn? It was absolutely necessary to have additional men to take the place of those who were soon to go out of the service.

Mr Harding says that a "full regiment of troops are not needed." When did the ex Senator come to this conclusion? It must be the result of some recent investigation, as it will be remembered that, within no very long period he exerted himself to raise the cavalry regiment, and to effect that object promised the men larger pay than is now given the new regiment—including State bonds and all. The two cases, however, now present the following point of difference. The ex Senator does not now expect any position, while he was then very ambitious to become the Quartermaster of the regiment—an office whose pay he drew with much regularity for some months.

Furthermore, while in Congress Mr Harding used all his efforts to prevail on the General Government to expend large sums in the construction of forts at the mouth of the Columbia river and elsewhere. Did he suppose these posts needed no garrisons? Or did the astute ex Senator imagine that troops would be sent us from the East while the war there was yet in its height? The truth is that the shallow subterfuges to which Mr Harding has resorted for the purpose of sustaining himself in his opposition to a necessary measure plainly enough carry with them the refutation of the whole scheme of repudiation by which he proposes to free the State of obligations it has solemnly promised to perform.

H. W. S

The United States vs Jeff Davis

The process that was issued some time ago in the name of the American people by Lieutenant General Grant against the felon, Jeff Davis, has been served in a proper manner by certain of Grant's subordinates and the most infamous criminal the world has ever known is now arraigned before that tribunal whose majesty he spurned and whose power he set at defiance.

It is a study both curious and instructive, to observe the recompenses of avenging Time. A little more than four years ago, Davis, one of the cabal of Southern traitors stood upon the floor of the national legislature uttering words which every patriot knew to be the emanation of a treasonable purpose. He was there confronted by Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, the man whom neither blandishments could seduce nor bribes allure nor threats intimidate. And as Andrew Johnson heard those monstrous utterances which he knew to be treason—or which were, rather, of treason the very essence—he declared before that junto of shamelessly disloyal men, that had he the power he would try them for treason and execute them as traitors.

That same inflexible patriot, Andrew Johnson, is now President of the United States, and that same villanous traitor Jefferson Davis is a prejudged criminal in the hands of the power of which Andrew Johnson is chief. Justice is not now much longer to be deprived of its dues. Andrew Johnson and Jefferson Davis will soon meet again—the one now the honored head of the greatest nation of the earth, the other a felon whom all execrate and abhor. How different the condition of the now hated traitor from that of the man who remained true to his country in its evil day!

No one needs to ask the question as to what will be the doom of this prince of traitors. The world is his accuser, the people of America are to judge him, and the law which he has so wickedly defied is to proclaim to all who would hereafter trample it under foot or set themselves above it, that its retributive vengeance, though it may come tardily, will surely come at last.

MORTALITY DURING THE WAR.—A very erroneous impression as to the number of lives lost during the present war is prevalent among those who have not given the subject much consideration. So much has been published about the hecatombs of slain that many suppose that they can be enumerated only by millions. But [illegible] late battles in Virginia official statements made up by the War Department show that the number of lives actually lost since the inception of the rebellion did not reach two hundred and forty thousand. This list is one of less magnitude than many would have supposed, and yet its numbers are sufficiently appalling. What an army of witnesses in another world will confront and condemn the guilty authors of their death!

DROWNED NEAR VICTORIA.—Two young men named William A. Nex[illegible] and Joseph B. [illegible]son, printers in the Victoria Chronicle office, were thrown overboard [illegible] of the boat in which they were sailing [illegible] from Esquimalt to Victoria and drowned on the 14th. Their [illegible] had not been recovered. Nex[illegible] was [illegible] of the proprietor of the Victoria Chronicle [illegible]

DATES TO MAY 16.

The Rebel Ram Stonewall.

Doings in North Carolina.

New York, May 1[illegible].—Dispatches from Greensboro, N. C. [illegible] Governor Vance left yesterday for his home in Buncombe county, having failed to obtain a permission to return to Raleigh to resume his functions as governor of North Carolina.

Gov. Graham, [illegible] Gilmore and Branford waited on Gen. Schofield at this point and asked permission to go [illegible] and see if they could not prevail on President Johnson to continue Governor Vance and the present legislature in power and [illegible] gradual instead of immediate emancipation. The request was denied. If a new election be ordered, Vance's friends who compose the wealthy and aristocratic portion of the State, will run him against Holden on a gradual emancipation platform and they feel confident of success.

The order of Gen. Schofield proclaiming freedom to slaves in this State created a great sensation here and elsewhere. It was hoped by the leading slaveholders to hold on to the negroes under a gradual emancipation scheme.

Violent Hurricane at the East.

New York, May 12.—Last evening, during a thunder storm, Spothart & Son's warehouse in Brooklyn was struck by lightning and fired. Loss $10,000. The storm was accompanied by a gale which did great damage. A large number of houses were unroofed. No lives were known to have been lost.

The [illegible]'s Newark, N. J. correspondent says: There was great destruction of property, and many persons were injured in that city by the gale. Over a hundred trees were blown down.

In Philadelphia thirty three houses were blown down.

Danbury, Conn., May 12.—A tornado, accompanied by rain, thunder and lightning, visited this city last evening. The steeple of the church at Bethel was blown down through the roof making a complete wreck of the building. Loss about $5,000. The roofs of houses, barns, etc suffered severely.

Robbery in Southern Oregon

Canyonville, May 10.—A miner by the name of J. M. Sutton was knocked down by Phoenix Miller Rose and robbed of sixteen hundred dollars in dust. The deed was committed between Applegate creek and Slate creek House. It was the intention of the robber to shoot Sutton but he got his gun wet in crossing Applegate. No tidings of Miller. Several men are on his track. It is thought impossible for him to escape.

The Rebel Foote, notified to quit the Country.

New York, May 15.—The Tribune says Henry S. Foote, late of the rebel Congress, who was some time since released from prison here on parole was a few days since notified that he must stand a trial for treason or quit the country. He accepted the latter alternative, and is now supposed to be in Canada.

Loans to be offered to Mexico.

New York, May 1[illegible].—The Herald's special dispatch says: It is expected that within two weeks there will be an offer to our capitalists of a Mexican loan, based on such securities as will recommend it as an investment. It is ascertained that nearly all the emigration schemes now creating so much excitement are totally unauthorized. It is intimated that some of them have been instigated and managed by French emissaries, with a view to induce the Government to prohibit emigration.

Jeff. Davis to go to Fort Lafayette.

New York, May 15.—The Times learns from a source of undoubted authority that Jeff. Davis is to be confined at Fort Lafayette.

Proof of Jeff. Davis' Guilt.

New York, May 15.—The Commercial's special dispatch says: Jeff Davis will reach Washington in the middle or latter part of the week. Positive testimony against him from Richmond will not be wanting. Skillful detectives are unravelling the movements of Surratt, who was in Richmond shortly before the murder and had more than one interview with Davis and Benjamin.

Gen. Warren Supersedes Gen. Dana.

New York, May 1[illegible].—Lieut. General Grant has relieved Major General Dana from the command of the Department of Mississippi and ordered him to report at his place of residence for further orders. Major General Warren succeeds Dana in command.

Rebel Arrogance and Presumption.

New York, May 12.—The Tribune's special dated Raleigh 8th says: Chief Justice Chase is now at Wilmington where citizens from different parts of the State will meet him for consultation. The temper of the masses of North Carolina has yet unchanged. The aristocracy and rebel classes are, if possible, more devilish than they ever were. They act as if the surrender of Lee and Johnston's armies was made merely to accommodate them, and not from necessity and as if they were entitled to particular consideration.

Sherman's Army.

New York, May 13.—The Herald's Richmond correspondence of May 9th says: Although it was expected there would be a grand review of Sherman's army on his passage through Richmond, none took place owing to the bad feeling between Sherman and Halleck. It is understood that this was caused by the act of the latter in countermanding the orders of the former to his subordinates during the truce with Johnston.

The Rebel Congress authorize the President's Murder.

New York, May 16.—The Tribune's special dispatch says: The War Department has had laid before it, a bill introduced in the rebel Congress by J. L. M. Curry of Alabama, which was [illegible] for the purpose of vindicating the starvation of prisoners of war, the murder of black soldiers, burning Northern cities and finally the assassination of the President of the United States and his cabinet. The preamble sets forth in great detail and with needless reiteration, the action of the United States Government in declaring all slaves [illegible] free [illegible] then follows this resolution:

[illegible] by the House of Representatives of the Confederate States, the Senate concurring, that [illegible] the opinion, that the so-called emancipation proclamation of the President of the United States and the enlistment of negro slaves in the several Federal armies [illegible] but are properly classed among [illegible] the right to put to death prisoners of war without special cause, [illegible] the right to assassinate, [illegible] of retaliation.

The endorsement on the paper goes to show that [illegible] was read first and second time and referred to the special committee on [illegible] February 16th, 1864.

A Proclamation Forthcoming.

New York, May 1[illegible].—The Herald's special says: President Johnson has under consideration a new amnesty proclamation [illegible] will be decided at a cabinet meeting to be held to-day. [illegible] to be held responsible for their treason and what others will not.

The Herald's Wilmington correspondent says there has recently been considerable excitement at Wilmington [illegible] the rebel ram Stonewall [illegible] make a raid on that place. [illegible]

Things in the Carolinas and Virginia.

The [illegible] special from Raleigh, N. C., on the 7th says: The destitution of the people of North Carolina is terrible and the Commissary Department is [illegible] besieged with applicants for food. The country is devastated and its business [illegible] ruined. Old men and women with but a single garment to cover their half starved forms, are begging in the streets of Raleigh. The system of foraging carried on by both armies has stripped the inhabitants of all subsistence. They are with a few exceptions reduced to [illegible] of the wealthiest families have been [illegible] the verge of poverty.

New York, May 1[illegible].—The [illegible] Washington [illegible] says: A civilian who [illegible] Virginia on horseback [illegible] was wholly unmolested. [illegible] were some rebel [illegible]

Railroad communication between [illegible] and the south [illegible] established [illegible] There is [illegible] very little [illegible]

Finances—Army to be Reorganized

New York, May 1[illegible].—The [illegible] says: Arrangements are making [illegible] near Alexandria within two weeks. The Government has paid off $30,000,000 of its debt during the month.

Major General Howard has been appointed to the head of the Freedmen's Bureau.

[illegible] Sherman's army started [illegible] held on Wednesday or Thursday.

The Times' special says the work of reorganizing the army is engaging the attention of the [illegible] Chief of the War Department [illegible] leading commanders. The question as to which troops will be mustered out and which retained [illegible] that in reorganizing the army an opportunity will be given [illegible] good soldier to remain in service [illegible] an order will [illegible] determine their qualifications and [illegible]

Jeff. Davis Expected at Nashville

New York, May 1[illegible].—A Nashville special dispatch to the Times says: Gov. Brown, late rebel Governor of Georgia, was brought here last night as a prisoner and left in the evening [illegible]

Jeff. Davis under a strong guard will arrive here on Thursday evening the 15th. Every rebel body of regular soldiers and guerilla organizations in this State and Northern Alabama have given up [illegible] under Gen. Thomas [illegible] Thousands of rebel soldiers have arrived here and taken the oath including the celebrated Dick McCann. Nearly all the hospitals are cleared out. Thousands of Government employees are being discharged.

The Augusta Chronicle congratulates its readers on the bright prospects of an immediate and lasting peace. It trusts that the new era will be one of good feeling and noble deeds.

Governor Pierpont will go to Richmond and establish the State Government next week.

Mrs. Lincoln starts for Chicago on Monday the 15th or Tuesday the 16th.

Philadelphia, May 12.—Subscriptions to the 7-30 loan to-day amounted to [illegible] million.

New York, May 12.—Bishop Johns of the diocese of Virginia, has issued a letter to the clergy and laity of his diocese, instructing them to resume the form of prayer in use before the rebellion. He expresses the hope that the resumed relations may be happily matured, and redound to the glory of God and the temporal and spiritual welfare of the Nation.

Cairo, May 1[illegible].—Chief Justice Chase went down the coast to New Orleans and thence up the Mississippi and back to Washington. His visits are of a judicial character. From him it is learned that the Administration will continue military rule in the rebel coast States till they are thoroughly reconciled to immediate emancipation. The policy of the Government gives great satisfaction because it stopped the plan of Gov. Vance and his friends, whose efforts, if successful, would bring on another rebellion.

New York, May 12.—The brig Excelsior from Bermuda reports that on the day of President Lincoln's funeral all the houses on the island were closed and flags were at half mast and draped with mourning. Public sympathy was earnest.

The Commercial's special dispatch says Gen. Sherman has arrived here as a witness before the committee on the conduct of the war.

Chicago, May 13.—Mobile papers of the 9th instant contain full particulars of the surrender of Dick Taylor but give nothing new.

The steamship St. Marys, sunk in Mobile Bay has been raised and will be repaired. The gunboat Osceola has also been raised.

Prospects of the Patriot Government of Mexico.

New York, May 13.—The Herald's city of Mexico correspondent says the news of our National triumphs which has reached this city, has afforded great encouragement to the advancement of President Juarez. His course which a short time since was thought almost hopeless, is now rapidly recovering. A number of victories have recently been gained over the enemy. New spirit appears to be infused into the Republican armies. The reported capture (by them) of Saltillo and Monterey, is confirmed. It is said that they have taken Matamoras. These events restore nearly the whole of northern Mexico to Juarez.

Several other republican successes have been achieved. The Imperialists were as much alarmed as the Liberals were encouraged by the suppression of our rebellion, owing to their [illegible] regard [illegible] the enforcement of the Monroe doctrine and had put a stop to the expedition to the northern Mexican States as well as the project for fortifying the northern frontier.

Eleven thousand Imperial troops had been dispatched from the capital for Matamoras.

Gwin has returned to Mexico from France with important instructions. It is reported to be in relation to Louis Napoleon's scheme in Sonora and Sinaloa.

The Herald's London letter says: A French expedition, composed of 1,000 French troops and nearly as many Belgians had started for Lower California and Sonora. The ostensible object is against the Indians of Yucatan. Sonora is to be speedily and strongly garrisoned with French troops, so that when Sonora and Sinaloa are finally handed over to the French they may be able to hold them.

Central American News.

New York, May 1[illegible].—The Ocean Queen from Panama the 6th has arrived. Gen. Sickles had a public audience at Bogota with President Murillo.

The news of the assassination of Lincoln was received May 1st, casting a gloom over the entire community. A large meeting was held at the American Consulate at which appropriate resolutions were adopted. Half hour guns were ordered to be fired. A monument subscription of a dollar each was also started. THE CASE OF FRANK HASS. — The case of the State of Oregon vs. Frank Hass [illegible] charged with perpetrating the crime of rape upon a little girl named [illegible] Amelia Moore, occupied a greater part of the [illegible] in the County Court yesterday, before Justice [illegible]. Amory Holbrook assisted District Attorney Hodg[illegible] on the part of the prosecution, while W. W. [illegible] Esq., appeared for the defense. The evidence went to show that the [illegible] on First street, [illegible] that Mrs. Moore [illegible] and that, on the morning of Monday last, [illegible] to the store for [illegible] [illegible] the fact itself [illegible] a about one hour, [illegible] until the next day. THE DAILY MAIL SERVICE. — No arrangement has yet been effected by any party with the Department whereby the daily mail either from California may be continued after June 30th, the date on which the present contract will expire. The California Stage Company is not [illegible] willing to carry the mail at the rates they [illegible] [illegible] is the sum asked, and the Department will [illegible] to give no more than $[illegible]. As things look at present it seems as if the mail must stop. The Postmaster General is no doubt governed by [illegible] economy, but it is difficult to see why [illegible] thought a very exorbitant charge for carrying the mails [illegible] hundred miles, when $[illegible] is paid for the route from P[illegible] to Atchison [illegible] [illegible] hundred. If the sum named [illegible] for the route is too great, [illegible] an objection. The books of the Stage Company show that they have expended in Oregon [illegible] for horses, feed, hire, &c., $[illegible]. [illegible] corporation, it has not expended [illegible] [illegible] State [illegible] here has been [illegible] taking into consideration the fact that it has supplied the mails with as much regularity as [illegible] [illegible] permit, we think [illegible] the company [illegible] any other party would be likely to have done.

THE TIMES. — As an indication of the times in Portland, showing that with all the increase of new buildings there is still a demand for eligible locations in business streets, we give the fact that rents have increased on Front street, in a certain locality, 50 per cent., within a very few days. We regret to state this [illegible] the case, as [illegible] is much better for the mercantile community to get a reduction, yet it is a certain indication of prosperity, [illegible]. But a few years since property was very much below present figures, and available buildings were [illegible] for business purposes at a low cost, while [illegible] the rapid progress being made points us ever back to the days when such "bargains" were common. We can [illegible] expect to see the same buildings bringing the [illegible] of rent, while the prospects of the city are [illegible] onward and upward. We admit that the present [illegible] somewhat out of proportion to the times, but it [illegible] stimulate a further enterprise in the erection of [illegible] as it most undoubtedly will.

[illegible] TO THE DALLES. — Mr. Whitney has returned from his expedition to the Dalles, in connection with the [illegible] extension of the telegraph line to that place [illegible] not very favorably impressed with the prospects of an immediate construction. The line will be [illegible] an expensive work, and the company do not propose to build it without the aid of the citizens there, and [illegible] the line," to the full amount [illegible] of the enterprise, and they do not feel a very [illegible] in the matter just now. We think, eventually, the line will be built. Mr. W. [illegible]

[illegible] IMPLEMENTS. — As the season is approaching, farmers and others dealing in agricultural implements are looking around to purchase such articles as [illegible], we would refer them to the establishment of [illegible] Knapp, Burrell & Co., of this city. They are [illegible] importers and their implements are [illegible] [illegible] patent persons to be the very best in market [illegible] and reapers are [illegible] the best machine [illegible] the public, and they are distributing them [illegible] whole country to those who [illegible] wants.

[illegible] — We would remind the [illegible] and liberal hearted portion of our community [illegible] evening there will be a festival at the basement [illegible] Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of further[illegible] the objects of the Christian Commission. The people [illegible] have responded generously to those objects [illegible], and the amounts which have been [illegible] have been productive of immense good [illegible] labor to be performed, and our generous [illegible] not become weary in well doing. [illegible] at this evening.

[illegible] — Attention is called to the card in another [illegible] of this paper, in reference to the plans of Miss [illegible] Harvey for supplying the ladies with all the late [illegible], etc., simultaneous with their appearance in New York. Miss H. has great confidence in her [illegible] to please the most fastidious, from her long experience in the business in Boston, Massachusetts.

[illegible] "AFTER HARVEST." — A cotemporary says [illegible] been thought that people are degenerating, be[illegible] they don't live as long as in the days of Methuselah [illegible] fact is, provisions are so high that nobody can [illegible] live long at the current prices. Provisions will [illegible] in Oregon "after harvest."

[illegible] — We learn that a company from San [illegible] have sent a man to Coos Bay for the purpose [illegible] lands, the object being to bore for coal oil [illegible] a strong probability that our people will have [illegible] of oil on the bay [illegible].

[illegible] No. 1. — For the purpose of facilitating the [illegible] of earth on those streets undergoing a change of [illegible] enterprising person has introduced a novel [illegible] genuine dump-cart, which for handy use in Portland ranks next to the [illegible] [illegible] in reducing the hills [illegible] been landed from the vessel [illegible].

[illegible] — Governor Gibbs leaves this morning for a [illegible] to the Willamette Valley, intending to stop at [illegible] to-morrow at the Union meeting. He will [illegible] first division of the wagon road over the Cascade [illegible], leading from Eugene city, before his return.

UNION MEETING AT WACONDA. — A Union Mass [illegible] will be held at Waconda, Marion County, [illegible]. Gov. Gibbs, Judge Boise, R. Mal[illegible], Gaston and W. F. Boyakin, are invited [illegible] present to address the meeting. Samuel [illegible], Esq., of Belpassi, has been appointed [illegible] of the day. The Aurora Brass Band [illegible] in attendance, and a Sanitary collection [illegible] up. The occasion will be one of much [illegible] In that part of Marion County, Cop[illegible] do not greatly abound.

The Nevada Transcript says a gentleman of [illegible] origin, reading the other day one of the [illegible] announcing the coming of the [illegible] of "Paradise Lost," came to the line, "A [illegible] in Heaven," when he broke forth as [illegible] "Yon repellion in heafn—mein Got! [illegible] not long. Onkel Abe is dare!"

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I am pleased to be able to inform you in this letter of the arrival in this city, of the Hon. C. DeWitt Smith, Acting Governor and Secretary. The good citizens of this town feeling in high spirits because of the Hon. Secretary's arrival, assembled together and extended hearty welcome in the shape of a public demonstration. Mr. Smith has [illegible] [illegible] the course he adopted regarding the [illegible], and has shown commendable energy and much sagacity in a [illegible] that much agitated question at once, by taking the seal and archives and holding them to Lewiston as soon as he got ready to do so, notwithstanding the Lewistonians made a great many threats to [illegible] him from carrying out his purpose. Last Monday, 24th inst., a very large meeting was held in the city at the court house, for the purpose of [illegible] the Secretary [illegible] [illegible] from Lewiston to this place. The meeting adopted resolutions endorsing Mr. Smith in all of his late acts, and pledging themselves to sustain him in his course [illegible]. Speeches were made by several prominent citizens and every thing passed off in a very satisfactory manner.

The mines have now fairly opened in Boise county, and times begin to be quite brisk. The news from Owyhee and South Boise is of an encouraging character. The weather has moderated and the snow is fast disappearing. Well loaded pack trains leave here every day for Boise [illegible]. I am credibly informed that some very fine quartz discoveries have been made in the far off county of Oneida, and there is considerable emigration going in that direction. Acting Governor Smith, I believe, contemplates organizing that distant county at a very early date, pursuant to a law of the recent Legislature.

Yesterday we received the startling and melancholy intelligence of the assassination of President Lincoln, Secretary Seward and his son, Frederick Seward. To-day all places of business are closed and befittingly draped in mourning. There are but few of our citizens who do not feel the deepest pain over this sad bereavement, and acknowledge the great loss the nation has sustained in the death of our Chief Magistrate, the statesman and pure patriot, Abraham Lincoln.

The last stage from Ruby City brought intelligence of an Indian outbreak between Ruby City and Humboldt. We can get few particulars, but learn that the Indians [illegible] with all [illegible] [illegible] and outrages usually practiced by the red-skins. It appears they began the attack on the passengers coming to Owyhee by the Humboldt route. I fully agree with you and believe the Portland and Columbia river route to be the safest and best. Yours,

M. A. C.

Public Speaking at Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, W. T., May 18, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Pursuant to appointment Messrs. Denny and Garfielde addressed the people of this place last evening on the political issues of the day. At half past seven o'clock the people were attracted to Metropolis Hall by the fine music of the Brigade Band. By the time appointed for the speaking to commence, the hall was crowded, the meeting was called to order, Judge Wyche was called to the chair, and J. M. Fletcher appointed Secretary. After music by the band, Mr. Denny, Union nominee for Delegate in Congress, was introduced. Although Mr. Denny's "fame as no talker had gone forth," he succeeded in convincing the people that he was a first rate specimen of a reasoner. In an address of one hour and a quarter he calmly and dispassionately, but very clearly and forcibly discussed the questions of the day, and completely used up the popular, but delusive fallacies of "State's Rights," and the idea of supporting the Government, but opposing the Administration. He attempts to make no capital by promising to support this, that, or the other pet scheme of particular localities, but he will go to Washington as the representative and advocate of Washington Territory. Whatever his "fame" as a "talker" may be, the people in this county have concluded that he can talk enough for them, and on the 5th of June next they will evidence their faith by their works.

At the conclusion of Mr. Denny's address, and after music by the band, Mr. Garfielde was introduced. Those who heard his address will not soon forget it. In words of burning, matchless eloquence, he showed that the present Democratic party has forsaken the old land-marks, and had wandered off in new, untrodden, and dangerous paths; and he demonstrated by the most convincing logic, that he, as a true and consistent Democrat, could not do otherwise than fight in the Union ranks. He paid an earnest and eloquent tribute to our late President, and resumed his seat amid the most rapturous applause. If Mr. Garfielde's "fame as a talker" had not already "gone forth," last night's address would have established it forever.

After Mr. Garfielde had concluded, we had "more music;" then a short speech from Mr. Ca[illegible]; then the audience gave three cheers and a "tiger" for Mr. Garfielde, ditto for Mr. Denny, took up a collection for the band, and adjourned till June 5th, at which time the Democracy of Washington Territory will know "who's who."

The water in the John Day and its tributaries has fallen so that the road is again passable entirely through to Canyon City. Great damage was done by the high water.

Every day the excitement in regard to Elk Creek quartz increases. Feet in that region can not be had at less than ten dollars. Canyon City went over there en masse this week and all came back as badly affected with quartz on the brain as when they started. Grant City, the metropolis of the new Ophir, is said to be inhabited already by quartz millionaires.

Placer mining in Canyon has been almost suspended on account of the tailings being washed into the claims by the freshet.

A party started out a few days since to explore the Crooked River country and prospect it for gold. The Indians are still dangerous on the road between the Dalles and Canyon City, but it is thought they are about in condition to close their depredations, as they have been unable to retain the plunder they have taken.

IMPURE BREATH. — Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most unpleasant and mortifying to its possessor, as it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society. How often its possessor experiences a distant coldness shown even from the best of friends, or perhaps the one most fondly cherished, from this source. You are ignorant of the cause yourself, the subject is so delicate your most intimate friend will not mention it. Why not remove this one great barrier to your health, beauty and happiness, at once, by using that justly popular Dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT, the most convenient, pleasant and efficacious gem for the toilet the world has ever produced.

The only well assorted and Complete Supply of PATTERNS, of Late Prevailing Paris and New York Fashions, for Ladies and Children's wear, will be found at MISS H. HARVEY'S, N. E. corner of Fourth and Washington streets. Having made permanent arrangements with Mme. Demorest, I shall at all times be prepared to furnish my patrons with the various NEW STYLES AND FASHIONS simultaneous with their appearance in New York. Possessing the benefit of many years practice in Boston, I feel confident that I can please the most fastidious. Ladies residing at a distance from the city, after having once left their measure, can at any subsequent time have any article manufactured to order without the inconvenience and expense of a trip to the city, by merely sending the material and designating the style. Those wanting Patterns only, can be supplied with any desirable style upon call. All work fully warranted in every respect. [illegible]

When we consider the number of human beings that die with Consumption every year, the importance of a medicine that will cure all pulmonary affections that tend to this complaint, and even to arrest the destroyer after it has indicated its presence, is [illegible] must be admitted to be beyond all estimation. Brandreth's Pills. Their Qualities. In small and repeated doses the effect of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills is to increase the activity of the secreting and excreting organs. The alvine discharges become more liquid and contain a larger proportion of bile. The operation of this extraordinary medicine does not stop here, the membranes of the lungs, of the eyes, and of the membranes become more [illegible] damp, and at the same time secretes where too dry, and cooler if too warm. So that Brandreth's Pills seem to vitalize and promote excretions generally. In large doses, say from five to ten Pills, they act as a powerful purgative, clearing the bowels first of their contents, and then acting upon the internal organs, cleansing them of slime, mucus, or acid concretions not required for their healthy action. Thus the action of Brandreth's Pills is what is required, bring about that state in all the organs which results in their full restoration to health. The blood [illegible] as well as the [illegible] restored to perfect purity and vigor.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.
NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP
HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!
"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.
STOP THAT COUGHING!
Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supercede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of [illegible] nostrums foisted on the public as a certain cure; but
NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!
Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.
WHAT KILLED HIM?
Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtless and reckless ignorance.
He Had a Cold!
Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into asthma." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that "prescription" was not
NEWELL'S
SYRUP.
KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

The Three Wishes

[illegible] ... that [illegible] k[illegible] w[illegible] have [illegible] ... his narrative would most likely ... others how they [illegible] ... [illegible] but I may have [illegible] ... example [illegible] ...

The [illegible] a wise emperor who [illegible] a law that [illegible] stranger wh[illegible] ... the string of bad [illegible] ... he turned it ... He had [illegible] he was to [illegible] that ... on the third day thereafter he was [illegible] put to death ... the culprit was permitted ... the wishes which the emperor pledged himself to grant ... Many [illegible] already perished in ... [illegible] ... over and was [illegible] ... when he was [illegible] ... prison, not [illegible] of his approaching ... [illegible] brought the [illegible] allow him to do so [illegible] his father in favor which the monarch was pleased to accord him. The count was [illegible] ... and his son was thr[illegible] into a cell in his stead. As soon as this had been done the young man said to his jailers,

"You know I have the right to make three demands before I die. Go and tell the emperor I [illegible] his daughter [illegible] ... [illegible] taste, nevertheless he felt bound to keep his word, and he therefore complied with the request to which the princess had [illegible] ... This occurred in the times when kings kept their treasures in a cave or in a tower set apart for the purpose like the Emperor of Morocco in these days and on the second day of his imprisonment the young man demanded the king's treasures. If his first demand was a bold one the second was not less so; still, an emperor's word is sacred and having made the promise, he was forced to keep it; and the treasures of gold and silver and jewels were placed at the prisoner's disposal. On getting possession of them he distributed them profusely among the courtiers, and soon he had made a host of friends by his liberality.

The emperor began now to feel exceedingly uncomfortable. Unable to sleep, he rose early on the third morning and went, with fear in his heart to the prison to hear what the third wish to be.

"Now," said he to his prisoner, "tell me what your third demand is that it may be granted at once, and you may be hung out of hand, for I am tired of your demands."

"Sire," answered the prisoner, "I have but one more favor to request of your majesty which, when you have granted I shall die content. It is merely that you will cause the eyes of those who saw my father turn the fish over to be put out."

"Very good," replied the emperor, "your demand is but natural, and springs from a good heart. Let the chamberlain be seized," he continued, turning to his guards.

"I, sire!" cried the chamberlain, "I did not see anything—it was the steward."

"Let the steward be seized then," said the king.

But the steward protested with tears in his eyes that he had not witnessed anything of what had been reported, and said it was the butler. The butler declared that he had seen nothing of the matter, and that it must have been one of the valets. But they protested that they were utterly ignorant of what had been charged against the count; in short, it turned out that nobody could be found who had seen the count commit the offence, upon which the princess said—

"I appeal to you my father, as to another Solomon. If nobody saw the offence committed the count cannot be guilty, and my husband is innocent."

The emperor frowned, and forthwith the courtiers began to murmur; then he smiled, and immediately their visages became radiant.

"Let it be so," said his majesty; "let him live though I have put many a man to death for a lighter offence than his. But if he is not hung he is married. Justice has been done."

How an Oil Well is Made.—After selecting a spot for a well, the artesian driller raises a derrick about 110 feet in height, bringing up a steam engine of about six horse power, and then after driving down an iron pipe of six inches in diameter through the earth and gravel some fifty feet or so, to the first strata of rock, introduces a drill of about two and a half inches in diameter attached to a temper screw and thence to the walking beam and engine, with which he bores now at the rate of eight or ten feet per day into the solid slate, soapstone, any one hundred feet, he then comes to the first strata of sandstone which may be ten or twelve feet in thickness and boring through this comes again to a slate and soapstone, of bluish cast, and working on, say for twenty five feet or so, he reaches the second strata of sandstone out of which there comes rushing up, when the right vein is struck, inflammable gas, salt water or petroleum. The bore of the well is enlarged by a 'rimmer,' and then an iron tube in sections of about fourteen feet, and closely screwed together is inserted by sections, and run down to the veins of oil; a flax seed bag, which expands when wet is fixed between the tubings and the walls of the well, in order to prevent the surface water from descending; a 'plunger' or valve put in, is introduced into the tube and sucker rod, being attached to the walking beam the conduit pipes and tank, which may hold sixty barrels be [illegible] in readiness, the engine moves and the precious treasure gushes forth! This is what is called a pumping well. In the 'flowing well' that is, such as send the oil out spontaneously the drill must go down into the third strata of sandstone, but this in some instances is very deep.

The Poetry of Justice.—The troops under command of Major General Weitzel were the first to occupy Richmond. Gen. Weitzel leads the negroes in the Federal army. There is something more than accident in this. The handwriting of Omnipotence records the just retribution of Treason. The dusky victims of bondage and oppression, liberated by the power of the Federal Union, were the first to unfurl its flag upon the Capital of Rebellion. The cause in which we rejoice is that of liberty, Justice and Honor. There is a refinement of severity in the blow which falls upon our conquered foes. The slave of the plantation stands sentinel at the capitol gates—an honored freeman—while his late master skulks from before the army of occupation a disgraced and condemned outlaw.

With what gusto the dusky warriors of Weitzel's command must have joined as they entered in the chorus of the familiar war song

> 'John Brown's body lies a-mouldering in the grave,
> But his soul goes marching on.'

And how like a death knell must the strains have rung in the ears of a discomfited and prostrate Oligarchy.—Albany Evening Journal.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child (although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system). THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned to this State, after an absence of one year, during which time he has visited all the principal hospitals of Europe, among them those of Dublin, London and Paris. The following celebrated hospitals of London are among those visited by the Doctor: Guy's, High street, Borough; St. Bartholomew's, Smithfield; St. Mary's, Canal Place, Paddington; Lock, Harrow road; St. Luke's, Old street; University, Gower street; Westminster, Broad Sanctuary; Charing Cross, Agar street, Strand, London; Whitechapel road; Royal Free Gray's Inn road; King's College, Portugal street.

DOCTOR GIBBON has also visited Doctors Acton of London, Ricord of Birmingham, England, and Ricord of Paris, who are considered the best physicians and surgeons in the world, and whose authority is acknowledged to be the highest in the treatment of Sexual Diseases.

DOCTOR GIBBON has obtained from them their new mode of treatment which cannot be surpassed.

DOCTOR GIBBON has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with new facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

There are many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system; look at their pallid countenances and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death releases them ... guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies, see that they are cured and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who clearly [illegible] ... is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.
